

ENGINEERS WITHOUT BORDERS NEPAL

Uniting Engineers, Transforming Lives

Quarterly Newsletter - December 2025

Key Highlights

Kapil Dev Regmi appointed as President of EWB International

We are proud to announce that Mr. Kapil Dev Regmi, Founder and President of EWB Nepal, has been appointed President of EWB International. His visionary leadership marks a major milestone for Nepal, strengthening global collaboration and advancing sustainable engineering impact worldwide.

Read full story →

Skanda Rimal appointed as new General Manager of EWBN

We are pleased to announce the appointment of Skanda Rimal as General Manager of Engineers Without Borders Nepal. With expertise in sustainable design and community-driven engineering, she brings strong leadership to advance EWBN's mission of impactful, resilient, and sustainable development initiatives.

Read full story →

Strengthening and Broadening Impact with Worldlink: MoU signed with Worldlink

EWBN has signed an MoU with WorldLink to expand its flagship iLab project to Koshi and Gandaki Provinces in FY 2082/83. This partnership will promote innovation-driven education, skill development, and community-based learning, empowering students and strengthening local innovation ecosystems.

Read full story →

Project Updates

Empowering the Future Changemakers: iLab at Jorpati

EWBN launched an iLab at Nava Sunthakan Academy, actively engaging Grade 8–9 students in hands-on projects focused on innovation, problem-solving, teamwork, and sustainable solutions using local resources.

Learn more

A celebration of student innovation: i-Jatra at Darchula

i-JATRA 2082, held on 7th November at Shree Malikarjun Secondary School, brought together students, educators, and the community. Student-led stalls showcased creative projects, 3D prototypes, and local products, fostering entrepreneurship, teamwork, and hands-on learning while engaging over 4,000 visitors in a vibrant educational festival.

Learn more

Recent Events

19, JAN

Five Youth Leaders Join EWB-I Youth Advisory Council 2026

Virtual (Global)

Five youth leaders from around the world have been appointed to the EWB-I Youth Advisory Council for 2026. Representing diverse universities and experiences, they will bring student perspectives, fresh ideas, and support global collaboration and youth engagement across the Engineers Without Borders network.

Read full story →

15,DEC

EWB Nepal Engages in Post-COP30 Climate Action Dialogue with CSOs

Dhokaima Café, Patan Dhoka, Lalitpur

EWB Nepal attended the Post-COP30 discussion on 15th December in Patan, engaging civil society, youth, and experts. The session reflected on COP30 outcomes, climate finance, adaptation, and grassroots action, emphasizing inclusive, youth-driven initiatives to address Nepal's climate challenges.

Read full story →

Volunteer Engagement

Media and Information Literacy (MIL) Awareness Program in Biratnagar

A youth-led Media and Information Literacy (MIL) Flashmob and Rally was held in Biratnagar on 19 December 2025, promoting responsible media use. Organized by youth groups with partner organizations, the event engaged over 500 people through performances, awareness activities, and community interaction to combat misinformation.

Read full story →

Support Our Mission

Your contribution empowers us to deliver sustainable engineering solutions to communities in need.

Donate Now

Don't want to receive these emails anymore?

Unsubscribe